

Agenda Format

The President of the Board of Education, conferring with the superintendent, will arrange the order of items on meeting agendas so that the board can accomplish its business as expeditiously as possible.

The board will follow the order of business established by the agenda, except as it votes to rearrange the order of business for the convenience of visitors, individuals appearing before the board, an educational presentation, or to expedite board business.

Omnibus Action

The chair may put omnibus action voting in the form of a motion. Any board member may request the withdrawal of any item under the omnibus action for separate discussion or voting.
